WASHINGTON.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Bills were introduced and referred as follows: By Harris, to request, to provide for extension of letters patent for improvements upon the Eclipse Cotton Gin. By Morrill, for erection of monument in Washington to the memory of Joseph Henry. By Williams, to establish ocean mail service between the United States and foreign nations, and providing adequate compensation therefor. Referred to the committee on Post Offices and Post Roads. Wallace submitted a resolution that the Senate hold a session on Wednesday and Thursday nights of each week, commencing at 8 and closing at 10:30, for consideration of bills on calendar, in their order. Edmundson said "that had better go over. I think we can make a better arrangement." Resolution went over. Mr. Cameron of Wisconsin introduced a bill for the same purpose, and took up his bill, and then Benjamin Holladay. A bill appropriating $225,739 to satisfy Ben Holladay's claim for losses on the mail service by reason of not being protected by the Government against Indians and being obliged to change his mail route was taken up by a vote of 26 yeas, 25 nays, but was then voted down, and no action was taken on it. It will require another vote to get it up again. On motion of Bruce, the House joint resolution denouncing rations to suffer by the Cyclone at Macon, Miss., was taken up and passed. The House President signed the immediate despatch (containing the election laws rider) and it was sent to the President for his signature.

House.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Under a call of the States, bills were introduced and referred. By Ellis, of Louisiana, to establish a Government postal telegraph service between Boston, New York and Washington and intermediate post towns. It is to be a system of lines successful to extend it to other cities of the country. Rates to be for 25 words or less; for 200 miles or less, 15 cents; for 500 miles or less, 25 cents; for 1,000 miles or less, 40 cents; for 2,000 miles, 65 cents; for 3,000 miles or less, one dollar. By King, of Louisiana, a resolution calling for information regarding the expulsion of Israel Irish, a citizen of the United States, from St. Petersburg. By Doggett, of Nevada, to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy. The Republicans demanded the reading of the bill, and introduced the resolution, being that the purpose was to prevent an anti-slavery resolution from being offered after a call of States should have been called. Doggett's bill was very long, and S. Springer, of Illinois, moved that the House adjourn. Inasmuch as it was evident that the whole day would be wasted, it was adjourned to, and at 2:30 p.m. the House adjourned.

Son Scott's Successor.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—It is generally believed that Col. Scott's successor on the first of June, the time when his resignation will take effect, will be first Vice-President Geo. B. Roberts, and that on Monday next Mr. Winsor Morrison's committee will recommend this choice to the directors.

Ohio Democrats for Thurman.

CINCINNATI, May 2.—Advices from a large number of county conventions held to-day throughout the State to elect delegates to the Democratic State Convention show nearly all in favor of Thurman. Fairfield County refused to instruct for Thurman, majority of delegates favoring Tilden.

Yellow Fever.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The Post of yesterday stated that advices had been received from New Orleans to the effect that three cases of yellow fever existed there. The story may be set down as untrue; since Doctor Joseph Jones, President of the Louisiana Board of Health, on Saturday, May 1, confirmed that New Orleans is free from fever of all descriptions. The weather is cool, and the health of the city was never better."

SAN FRANCISCO TRAGEDY.

A Card from Young Kalloch.

SAFETY, May 3.—The Post this afternoon publishes the following card from Young Kalloch:

"Editor Post.—I have not a word to say about the facts or merits of my cause. I wish to be tried in the ordinary way, especially toward a man charged with murder. It is my desire to be characterized as an American commoner. But I expect no fair play on or before my trial if the fast men and corrupt detectives who surround the Chronicle office and assume to run this city can prevent it. It is infamous that public opinion is so warped that the community should work illegitimately for private individuals and cover up what ought to be the honorable prosecution of malignant persecution. The devilish publication in the Chronicle of last Sunday shows how some of our detectives will invade private houses and try to frighten ignorant people. As far as I am concerned, I have this to say: I do not know the man, and I make no statement as to my version of what transpired; I do not say whether his testimony was correct or incorrect, but I do declare that he had no motive, so far as I am concerned, to pervert the truth, and that there is nothing in his evidence to indicate perjury. It looks to me as if his arrest is intended by the Chronicle and the detectives to warn the citizens of San Francisco that they must ever testify to my facts that would ever tend to my exculpation. Yours truly,

"L. M. KALLOCH."

The Post, in another column, says: "However improbable it may appear in the face of the testimony given at the inquest on the body of the late Charles De Young, it is undoubtedly asserted by the friends of L. M. Kalloch that at least a dozen witnesses will support the testimony of Clemenshaw to the effect that De Young did fire the first shot. The rumor is given for what it is worth, but there is no possible doubt that such evidence will be offered and form part of the defense."

Murder and Attempted Suicide.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Mrs. Nellie Stokes, 19 years of age, was shot last night by Edward Kennedy, one of the boarders, at the house of Mrs. Margaret Taggart, at 180 Second street, Wilhamsburgh, who after wards attempted to commit suicide in her own life. Some time ago she quarreled with her husband, George Stokes, a mill-worker, and left him, going to live with Mr. Taggart, who is said to be her aunt. A week ago Kennedy, who is employed on one of the tug boats of Heyne's sugar refinery, went to Mrs. Taggart's to board and fell in love with Mrs. Stokes, though she did not give him much encouragement. He proposed marriage, but she rejected him, and told him she was a married woman, since then she has repeatedly refused him. Shortly before six o'clock to-night he met Mrs. Stokes in the parlor of her boarding house. When she again rejected his proposal he drew his pistol and shot at her; the ball entered her left temple, and lodging in her brain, Kennedy then shot himself in the right temple; but his wound was found not to be of serious character. Mrs. Stokes was taken to the hospital, but it was said she could not survive as the ball was imbedded in her brain.

No Inferior Court for Wake.

Pursuant to a resolution of the Board of County Commissioners, the Board of Magistrates in session to establish an inferior court in Wake County, followed by an order of the chairman of the latter, the Magistrates of the county met yesterday at 12 M. to consider the propriety of establishing the court.

Michael Whitley, Esq., the chairman of the board, not being present, C. B. Root, Esq., on motion of R. G. Dunn, was appointed chairman of the meeting. R. W. Best was appointed clerk.

The roll of magistrates then being called, thirty-eight were present, the number being present, the meeting was then organized and proceeded to business.

L. D. Stephenson moved that the court be established, and spoke at some length in support of his motion.

Howard Barnes, opposite the court, and said it would be a blow to the Democrats of Wake and a useless expense. The magistrates should pause and consider well before establishing the court; the farmers could not afford to neglect their farms to attend the courts. The court could not be of much use to the people. His township had held a meeting to express their opinion on the subject, and every man opposed it.

L. D. Stephenson believed it would be to the interest of the tax-payers to have the court. The superior court dockets were so numerous that the interior court would diminish the burden of the superior caused by the crowded state of the dockets.

Albert Mangum thought that public opinion was against the court. He thought those who favored the court were for foreign interests. The court would be of no economy in it, and urged the magistrates to listen only to the promptings of their judgment in considering the question.

W. R. Pool said the criminal dockets of the court were so numerous that the interior court would be of no use in establishing the court; the court could not be reached and therefore he hoped the court would be established.

M. B. Barbee thought the court would consume too much of the time of the farmers and be expensive to the people. The law would be applied to the people, and the court would be a burden to the people, and no man who was well in favor of the court, but could see no advantage in establishing the court, on the contrary he thought it would burden the tax-payers, and therefore opposed the court.

W. R. Pool said the criminal dockets of the court were so numerous that the interior court would be of no use in establishing the court; the court could not be reached and therefore he hoped the court would be established.

W. R. Pool said he felt justified in requesting a call of the meeting, on account of the complaint of lawyers and others in the superior court whose business could not be attended to.

Major Clarke desired to know whether or not the court would be an expense to the people—not, he said, but only upon condition that it would not entail more expense.

It was voted, "No,"—as Augustus is, there is no room for him—and I saw the brother of Miss Flora enjoying it; enjoying it with a scowl of such misery and wrath, that I thought the fingers, writhing in his pockets, were clutching a pistol. It is said, "If I give the report no credit—that this lady-killer is there to stay." There is not one thing more disagreeable than the broadest flattery and that is affected indifference. Now, I see from your expression that you think me vain—but the manner in which I am flattered is remarkable. I am not satisfied any body, and don't want you to think I am conceited; but really (with a lisp) Flora Blank is making herself perfectly ridiculous about me. I am afraid that people will observe it."

The Jews appear to be more popular in England than the Catholics. It is a curious fact that not a single Catholic was elected to Parliament in the late elections in England, notwithstanding the large Catholic population of the country, whereas five Jews, among them Baron Henry de Worms and Baron N. de Rothschild, can now sign themselves M.P.'s.

GERMANY apparently does not favor colonies. The German government has, for some time past, been anxious to extend its political and commercial influence, particularly in the Pacific, where German merchants possess a large portion of the trade. The Island of Samoa was fixed on as a proper station for a German settlement and arrangements made with the native chiefs by which a foothold could be secured there. After all the necessary arrangements, however, had been made, the German Parliament the other day, by a considerable majority, refused to ratify the treaty with Samoa, and declared that they were opposed to the policy of extending the Empire into remote regions where it could not be properly protected, and thought the policy of Germany was to improve the condition of the people at home rather than to seek dominions in the antipodes.

The New York Sun gives two estimates of Grant's strength in the Republican convention. If all the delegates vote as they are instructed Grant had, on last Monday, 218 out of the 380 delegates already elected, a majority of 56 over all the other candidates; if however, the delegates repudiate these instructions and vote according to their own personal preferences Grant will have only 172 of those votes, and be in a minority of 34. The moral deduced from this is that all the delegates to Chicago vote as they please Grant will be defeated; but if fifty of sixty of them vote as somebody else commands he will be the Republican candidate for the Presidency.

Citicura

ave. Achieved the most noted success of any Medicines of Modern Times.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter have never doubted the specific properties of Citicura, Citicura Balsam and Citicura Soan, for the cure of Consumption, especially the cure of Hemorrhage of the Blood, Skin and Scalp. They are however, astonished at the universal success, for it was to be expected that the Citicura would have had fail solely from spasmic or ignorant use of them.

The Citicura is said to say without fear of contradiction that no remedies ever achieved in the short space of one year the number of wonderful cures performed by the CITICURA MEDIES.

SALT RAHUM,

Covering the Body for 10 Years, Permanently Cured.

LAW OFFICE OF CHAS. HUGHTON, 12 Congress Street, Boston, Mass., 1878.

Medical Writing. For the public it is a duty to inform you and through you all who are interested to know the fact, that a most disagreeable and obstinate case of the Citicura, which has been under my personal observation from its first appearance to the present time, after ten years, -cured by the greater portion of the patients by taking and letting scab, and to which all the known methods of treatment were rendered ineffectual, has completely disappeared, leaving a clean and healthy skin, under a few days of profuse application of Citicura.

I can and do heartily advise all similarly afflicted to try the remedy which has been so effectual in this case.

Very truly yours,

CHAS. HUGHTON.

Liver Complaint.

And Dyspepsia Treated by the Re-solvent, Gains 1-2 pounds on GENTLEMEN—I have one Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, with running sores on the side of my neck, for ten years. Doctors did no good. I have been spending for eight years and more, and have not been able to distress me. I lost reduced from 125 to 132 pounds. At last I tried the Resolvent, and in a short time, a few days, a bottle I gained five and one-half pounds. It is the business, and I am going to it strong.

JOHN H. HUGHES,

41 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., Nov. 15, 1878.

Theodore Hobgood, Esq., is the authorized General Traveling Agent and Correspondent of the NEWS.

Weather Report.

Manteo Lodge meets to-night.

Raleigh Light Infantry meet to-night in their armory for drill and other important business.

Raleigh owns more handsome equipage than any other city in the state.

The gasoline tank in front of the market was again replenished on yesterday. Ten barrels sufficed.

The excellent condition of our drives is taken advantage of by owners of swell turnouts.

Capt. P. B. Griffin, Secretary of the N. & R. Co., was in the city yesterday.

Read the "Dandy Despot" in this issue. The way the author goes for the "dandies" is amusing in the extreme.

Only fifty-three out of our seventy-five magistrates answered the call on yesterday.

Pools are selling rapidly on the Township that will show up the first full grown water-melon of the season.

The Raleigh Fish Culturists Association will give their anniversary dinner in a few days at their grounds.

The last basket picnic proved so pleasant that our young gentlemen intend giving another some time this week.

The mill pond at Jones, Green & Powell's flour mill was the scene of large baptizing among the colored people to call at M. ROSENBAUMS, near the Capitol.

You will find it to your advantage if you are in need of any kind of white trimmings to call at M. ROSENBAUMS, near the Capitol.

Just received to-day a large lot of cheap Fans' Parasols, made up. Lace Goods, Picnic, Ladies and Children Hose, Handkerchiefs, and many other new goods at M. ROSENBAUMS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the "Boston Christian Freeman." We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge: it is a family to her, probably, as natural indeed, as a mother's love; it relieves pain, quiet sleep, and the parents' unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for though it is a syrup, it is not at all peculiarly natural, and the little children avow it as "bright as a button."

And during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of a child till it had finished with the teething stage, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

Gentlemen's Dress Shirts, handwoven bosom and bands 5/4 all linen, bodies of Wamsutta Muslin, well finished in every respect and guaranteed to fit, better shirts cannot be made. Gentlemen's 4-ply collars and cuffs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER.

If you have any fruit or produce of any kind to ship, consign it to T. H. Bock & Co., 185 Reade St., New York. They guarantee quick sales and prompt delivery. The remittance and shipping fee will be charged.

Mr. A. W. Fraps has just built an attractive little cigar store in the front of his wholesale wine and liquor ware room, which is probably the most ornamental in the city.

The ordinance of baptism was administered to nineteen candidates at the Swain street Baptist Church Sunday, the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Gwinall, officiating.

Rev. Mr. Nelson, the evangelist, continued his meetings at the Tabernacle at Metropoliitan Hall, and the interest manifested seems to be as intense as at any time during the meetings.

The Board of Commissioners met in the Court House yesterday for the transaction of the regular monthly business. Nothing of a public nature was brought before the meeting and the Board adjourned over till the day.

All the churches were well attended Sunday, and the services were well attended. The ladies delighted to be invited, the ladies delighed in great numbers, some of whom in their beautiful Spring colors looked "too sweet to live a minute."

Married on the 3d inst., at the residence of the bride, by the Rev. R. W. Bernwell, Col. Francis H. Cameron of Raleigh, N. C., to Miss, Eugenie Legrand, youngest daughter of Leroy G. Weaver, Esq.

No Cards.

Our devil has decided not to accept the position of President of the Pennsylvania Central. He says that in this life he will never leave old Rham-

ka. Remove the tax from rot-ghatt,

And let the fluid flow,

For my home is still old Rhamka,

No matter where I go."

The grandest Sunday School celebration ever given in this city, is talked of by the First Baptist Sunday School, for the 22nd inst., in which of the Baptist Sunday Schools in the country will be invited to participate. The place chosen will be Wake Forest, and it is expected that several special trains will be run from Raleigh to the grounds in order to accommodate all who may wish to attend.

The baby brigade was out in full force yesterday. While many of the little darlings were in carriages, which is the proper place for them, and where they can enjoy a breath of pure air, still many of them, in their carriages, were on the streets. It takes considerable dodging and dancing around, when one meets a half a dozen of them, to keep from being run over and having his shins skinned.

Episcopal Appointments.

Owing to the continued indisposition of Bishop Atkinson, Bishop Lyle will at his request, fill the following appointments:

The Clergy.

The "New TABLET," Col. Wilkins' Life of Christ" is one of the cheapest books ever published. One large volume, 1,288 pages, price $1.50. Alfred Williams & Co., sold all their first supply on the day received, and a second lot has just arrived.
